

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

For more than 30 years, Anwar Fazal has stood for social transformation. Founder member of International Baby Food Action Network and Chairperson Emeritus of World Alliance for Breastfeeding Action, Anwar Fazal has initiated several movements and has inspired and guided several more with his vision and commitment. His contribution in areas of consumer health, environment and human rights issues has brought him local and global recognition, including the Right Livelihood Award, popularly known as the “Alternative Nobel Prize”, the Global 500 Award by UNEP, and Honorary Doctorates in Law and Philosophy.

Radha Holla has been working in the areas of health, environment, and gender for almost three decades. She is the co-author of several books and articles on these issues and on globalisation.

